Make celebrations fun, healthy, and active

Eating healthy and being physically active can be a fun part of parties and events. Great gatherings are easy to have when tasty, healthy foods from all the food groups are offered in a fun, active environment. Above all, focus on enjoying friends and family.

1. Make healthy habits part of your celebrations
   Although food and beverages are a part of many events, they do not have to be the center of the occasion. Focus on activities that get people moving and allow people to enjoy each other’s company.

2. Make foods look festive
   Add a few eye-catching vegetables to a favorite dish or a new recipe. Add a sprinkle of herbs or spices to make the dish pop. Cut foods into interesting shapes.

3. Offer thirst quenchers that please
   Make fun ice cubes from 100% juice or add slices of fruit to make water more exciting.

4. Savor the flavor
   Take time to pay attention to the taste of each bite of food. Make small, healthy changes to your recipes or try dishes from another culture to liven things up.

5. Let MyPlate be your guide
   Offer whole-grain crackers, serve a spicy bean dip and a veggie tray, make fruit kabobs, layer yogurt and fruit to create a sweet parfait. Use whole-grain pasta or brown rice and veggies to make a savory, healthy salad.

6. Make physical activity part of every event
   Being physically active makes everyone feel good. Dancing, moving, and playing active games add fun to any gathering.

7. Try out some healthier recipes
   Find ways to cut back on added sugars, salt, and saturated fat as you prepare your favorite recipes. Try out some of the recipes on WhatsCooking.fns.usda.gov.

8. Keep it simple
   Have others participate by contributing a healthy prepared dish, helping with the cleanup, or keeping the kids active.

9. Shop smart to eat smart
   Save money by offering foods that fit your budget. Buy in-season produce when it costs less and tastes better. Plan in advance and buy foods on sale.

10. Be a cheerleader for healthy habits
    It’s never too early for adults to set an example. Keep in mind that children follow what the adults around them do—even at parties.
